34th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

'Mine is not a kingdom of this world'

Pope Pius XI, whose motto was 'the peace of Christ in the reign of Christ' instituted this Feast in 1925. Benito Mussolini had just declared himself 'Il Duce' ('The Leader') of Italy; Stalin had come to power in Russia; Hitler was gaining control in Germany and the Holy Father wanted to remind his flock that, for them, there could be only one 'duce', Jesus Christ. He placed the feast, appropriately, at the hinge of the Church Year, to indicate that all time and all seasons belong to the Lord. Christ is a king with a difference. He did not come to reign on a golden throne, but on a wooden cross. His power comes, not through domination, but through humble service. As he stands before Pilate in today's Gospel, he explains his mission: 'I have come to bear witness to the truth'. God is Truth and when we stray from Him, we stray from the truth. When on the other hand we seek His truth, love His truth, speak His truth, act His truth, and lead others to discover His truth we enable His kingdom to come within our hearts and within our world.

'The Feast of Christ the King is the feast of those who know they are in the hands of the One who writes straight with crooked lines.' (Pope Benedict).
