LET US DREAM

Pope Francis, like the rest of us has been reflecting deeply on the Covid crisis that still grips our world. In his recent book, 'Let Us Dream' he offers the fruits of his reflection and urges the human family not to let the pain be in vain. As we stand on the threshold of a new year his words offer hope and possibility and stand as a powerful antidote to the fear, weariness and uncertainty that is widespread: "The basic rule of a crisis is that you don't come out of it the same. Crisis is a time of purification. We are all tested in life. It's the way we grow. Where the danger is, also grows the saving power. This a moment to dream big, to rethink our priorities - what we value, what we want, what we seek - and to commit to act in our daily life on what we have dreamed of. One of my hopes for this crisis we are living is that we come back to contact with reality'. May we all dream big and by rethinking our priorities, find peace and purpose in 2022. ## SECOND SUNDAY AFTER CHRISTMAS

'The Word was made flesh'

We have just heard an extract from the Prologue to St. John's Gospel. In the days before the Second Vatican Council this reading was proclaimed at the end of every Mass. Known as the 'Last Gospel' it reminded the faithful before their dismissal, of the Good News at the centre of their faith: 'the Word was made flesh'. Our God walks with us. He has made His home with us and by becoming flesh, has bestowed a sacredness on all of creation. Heaven is literally here on earth. 'The world around us is the shop front for a greater reality'. We are grateful to John for taking us beyond the surface to the deeper meaning of the Christmas event. The eagle is, appropriately, the symbol of his Gospel. It is believed that the eagle flies higher than all other birds and can look directly into the light of the sun. So it is with John's Gospel. It takes us higher and deeper into the mystery of our God and the light of His face.
