PALM SUNDAY

'Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the Lord'

It is Holy Week again. We take our place beside the cross and begin the lonely road with Jesus that leads to the Hill of Calvary. It is a week of contrasts, shot through with moments of acclamation and condemnation, betrayal and loyalty, despair and hope, darkness and light, sadness and joy. It is a week that gives meaning to all suffering, which is shown as the price of love and the path to glory: 'no thorns, no throne; no gall, no glory; no cross, no crown'. The drama of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday is the story of the Triumph of Failure and the Triumph of Love. We have heard the story a thousand times, but we need to be reassured again that our God is near; we do not walk alone; our journey has a destination; death is not a voyage into the unknown, but, rather a journey home. By His cross and resurrection He has set us free.

Holy Thursday: 'In the Upper Room the Eucharist and the Priesthood are born'.

Good Friday: 'While the world changes the Cross stands firm'.

Holy Saturday: 'We hold our breath and wait in quiet hope'.

Easter Sunday: 'His victory is our victory; we are no mere mortals'.
