OCTOBER: MONTH OF THE MISSIONS

'You shall be my witnesses'

'Every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ. The Church community has no other mission than that of bringing the Gospel to the entire world. To evangelize is the very identity of the Church'.

MISSION SUNDAY - 23rd OCTOBER

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

'Pray continually and never lose heart'

Every noble work is at first impossible. Perseverance is of the essence and the ancient Chinese proverb resonates with all: 'The man who removed the mountain began by removing the small stones'. We live in an impatient age, an age of instant communication, instant results, instant coffee even! We find it difficult to cope with delays. Yet it is that which grows fast that withers rapidly, while that which grows slowly endures. Good things come to those who are patient, but the best things come to those who don't give up. Perseverance in prayer leads to deepening, and allows us to see into the heart of things, to grasp the bigger picture. It draws us into the mind of God. Prayer is not about the 'quick-fix'. As Mother Teresa once said: 'Prayer is not asking. It is putting oneself in the hands of God, and listening to His voice in the depths of our hearts'. It is the key of the morning and the bolt of the evening, but it takes time, patience and perseverance.
